

The Kahn Dry Goods Co.
LIMITED,
GRAND
SEMI-ANNUAL
Clearance
Sale.

All Goods at Cost.

The Kahn Dry Goods Co.
LIMITED,
GRAND
SEMI-ANNUAL
Clearance
Sale.

All Goods at Cost.

Lace Curtains and Portiers at Cost

We began taking inventory Monday, Jan. 3rd, in view of this we again offer all goods in the many departments of our house

Positively for Cost for .....Cash.

We make no idle boasts. If you can possibly spare the money we will give you unprecedented values.

Ladies' & Child'n's Underwear at Cost

All Goods at Cost.

The Kahn Dry Goods Co.
LIMITED
GRAND
SEMI-ANNUAL
Clearance
Sale.

All Goods at Cost.

The Kahn Dry Goods Co.
LIMITED,
GRAND
SEMI-ANNUAL
Clearance
Sale.

DRIFTING NEWSLETS.

Uncle Ben Gilliland was in town Monday. He reports all well except Mr. Will, whom we regret to say, has been quite seriously ill. He is out of danger now.

Mr. J. T. Bonner of Plain Dealings was in to see us Monday. He is one of L. T. Sanders' boss traveling men and sells large lots of nursery stock.

Mr. L. T. Sanders, one of The Progress' staunchest and oldest friends, was in the city Monday. He is one of the stablest citizens in the State.

Well, well, well! Even Lincoln, Union and Vernon parishes turned the Populists down this time.

The sunshine of last Saturday morning was quite a treat to behold.

It seems that the old veteran ward boss, Dr. E. C. Smart of Vernon parish, was in evidence again at the recent election.

The registration all over the State was light, the votes lighter.

Spring will soon be here; what about those small factories?

That basket factory would be a big thing for Shreveport, and yet would require very little capital.

Do you intend to help the Home Library Association? The dues are only twenty cents per quarter.

Small factories are the greatest necessities for Shreveport now.

Gracious, how tough the mud seems! Shreveport must have paved streets.

Let's talk about base ball.

It will soon be time for another excursion.

We catch only an occasional glimpse of the Sunny South, in these parts, about now.

There will be preaching at Jordan street church tomorrow morning and evening at 11 and 7:15 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. Barnett Wright.

We are all going to work hard for Shreveport this year.

The Salvation Army will enliven things in our city.

Rev. H. W. Rickey, former pastor of Jordan street church was ordained an Elder at the recent conference held at Crowley.

Mrs. R. M. Sibley is suing the Belt Line Railway Company and the City of Shreveport for $7,500 damages and $250 doctors' bills for injuries received on Crockett street.

Shreveport Commercial and Academic Institute. Over Doll's Grocery.

The course will be two fold—to fit pupils of both sexes for business and for College.

Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Penmanship, English and Stenography will be practically and thoroughly taught.

Pupils can enter any day or evening, beginning Monday January 24th. For terms etc., address

J. V. CARLIN.

Mr. Carlin comes to Shreveport induced and recommended by Prof. George Seale, one of the foremost educators of the South.